

Reflection – Easter Sunday

Congratulations! You have made it all the way through Lent. If you gave up chocolate you can now stuff yourself with Easter Eggs. Wait a second! Is there more to this day than eating chocolate? I think there might be...

"There is no need for you to be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would. Come and see the place where he lay, then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead and now he is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him.'"

Now I have told you!" Matthew 28:5-7

This is the day we celebrate Jesus rising back from the dead! Having been crucified and then buried in a tomb He came back to life.

Now in the below picture there are four different pictures of Jesus. Can you find all four Jesus'?

NOW YOU'VE FOUND JESUS AFTER HE HAS COME BACK FROM THE DEAD, BE SURE TO KEEP YOUR EYES FIXED ON HIM.